

ABDUL HAMID▲ Lesson in brief

It is a story of a brave soldier named Abdul Hamid. He was a Havaldar in the Indian army. The story tells about his bravery in the Indo-Pak battle in 1965. Abdul Hamid fought at the border of Khemkaran sector. Abdul Hamid bravely shot at the dangerous Pakistani Patton tanks. He was awarded the Param Vir Chakra for his valour (bravery).

▲ Textual solutions

Q1. Who was Abdul Hamid?
 Ans. Abdul Hamid was a brave Indian soldier. He was a Master Havaldar in Indian army.

Q2. Which sector was he fighting in?
 Ans. He was fighting at Khemkaran sector of India.

Q3. Where is the village named Cheema situated?
 Ans. Village Cheema is situated on the border of Khemkaran sector of India.

Q4. What sort of tanks did Pakistan have?
 Ans. Pakistan had dangerous and powerful Patton tanks.

Q5 What made Indian soldiers happy?
Ans Indian soldiers were happy because Abdul Hanid shot and destroyed a Pakistani Tank.

Q6 How did Hanid destroy the enemy tanks?
Ans Hanid destroyed the enemy tank by firing a shell with his gun.

Q7 How did Hanid fight the enemy and what happened to him?
Ans Hanid fought the enemy very bravely while fighting he was badly wounded by an enemy shell.

Q8 How was Hanid honoured for his bravery?
Ans Hanid was awarded the Param Vir Chakra for his bravery.

Q9 How do you feel about Abdul Hanid after reading the story?
Ans we feel great respect and regard for Abdul Hanid.

Complete the following sentences.

1. Abdul Hanid was awarded PARAM VIR CHAKRA
2. One shell of the enemy hit ABDUL HAMID
3. The Pakistani Army had got PATTON TANKS
4. Abdul Hanid died fighting in KHEMKARAN SECTOR
5. The war between India and Pakistan was fought in 1965